MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON

Re: Medal of Honor for J. Edgar Hoover

Attached hereto is a copy of S. 606, a bill introduced by Senator Reed on January 11, 1943, to authorize the presentation of a medal of honor to J. Edgar Hoover. The bill was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Senator Reed introduced a previous bill, S. 357, for the same purpose. The only difference in the new bill is wording which reads, "That the President is authorized to cause a medal of honor to be prepared and presented to J. Edgar Hoover", rather than "That the President is authorized to present, in the name of Congress, a medal of honor to J. Edgar Hoover".

The bill will be closely followed and you will be promptly advised of further action thereon.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON

Re: Medal of Honor to J. Edgar Hoover

A copy of the bill, S. N. 765, introduced by Mr. McCain, on January 8, 1943, is attached hereto. Its purpose is to authorize the presentation of a medal of honor to J. Edgar Hoover.

This bill is similar to the bills introduced by Mr. Walter and Mr. Reed. The wording in this bill is a little different from the bill by Mr. Walter. Copies of the bill by Mr. Reed are not available as yet.

These bills would authorize the President, in the name of Congress, an appropriate medal of honor to J. Edgar Hoover in recognition of the untiring devotion to duty of the Director in the apprehension of the saboteurs during the month of June 1942.

The bill has been referred to the Committee on the Judiciary. Further developments in the progress of the bill will be brought to your immediate attention.

J. Edgar Hoover, Esquire

Presentation of J. Edgar Hoover for the Gold Medal of the Holland Society of New York
November 19, 1942

Some twenty-five years ago there was graduated from George Washington University a young man who had earned his way through Law School by a clerical job in the Library of Congress. He was educated in both institutions. When he wasn't studying his law books he was browsing on the Library stock, indulging a voracious appetite for all kinds of reading except, curiously enough, detective fiction, in which he has never had any interest. On receiving his law diploma, despite the fact that the Library job was paying him more than he could hope to earn for some time as a lawyer, he gave it up for a beginner's post in the United States Department of Justice. There has never been a dull moment in that Department since.

There are, of course, a good many worthy men in Washington who have been there for ages and ages. You can readily spot them, starting from either end of Pennsylvania Avenue; but none will you find who, on the silver anniversary of Government service, can show more striking achievements for the Nation's welfare, clearly attributable to his own energy, resourcefulness, and steadfast devotion to the commonweal, than he. In fact he is the only head of a bureau in Washington who has never been called a bureaucrat.

This former library clerk is a celebrated criminologist. It would be a crime on my part to hang him any longer in rhetorical suspense. I am referring, as many of you amateur G-men may already have deduced, to the gentleman who has so generously consented to receive the accolade of the Holland Society this evening, the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation of the Department of Justice, Mr. J. Edgar Hoover.

Starting at scratch, and with no fancy handling, he attained the full directorship on sheer merit within the short space of seven years. Now this Bureau of Investigation wasn't a new thing. It had been going since 1908. In fact it was practically gone when he came into the picture. That is, it was just another lack-luster agency of government, closely limited in range, and shy of significance, until he took hold. Since then its advance in scope, efficiency, and usefulness has been no less solid and substantial than spectacular. Wherefore, we honor ourselves as we celebrate this evening the twenty-fifth anniversary of his connection with the Department of Justice.

Within a few years after becoming Director he had greatly enlarged the Bureau into an organization of college and field trained personnel of outstanding quality, strategically deployed over the country, integrated not only by quick-trigger scientific mechanism but by passionate loyalty of the men to their leader and to the exalted ideals of their corps. Mr. Hoover has not only hand-picked his personnel, but fortified them with the most up-to-date equipment and the latest scientific techniques. Early impressed, for example, with the superiority of the finger-print system of identification over all others, he is chiefly responsible for its ascendancy in this country and in international usage. Withal, the headquarters of the Bureau in Washington today constitute the foremost laboratory of applied criminology anywhere extant. Quite properly did one of our own Holland Society members, whose name now and then appears in the press, say to him recently, in a letter on White House stationery, that he had put the F.B.I. in "the forefront of the law enforcement agencies of the world."

Not the least remarkable of all this is that he has brought it about irrespective of changing political regimes and despite a maze of local jurisdictional obstacles of various kinds dotting the map of these United States. Through his establishment seven years ago of the National Police Academy, which now affords police officers from all over the Nation training by the F.B.I. along Bureau lines, he has welded state to state, county to county, precinct to precinct, in a collaborative network of law enforcement the like of which has never before been seen.

Aside perhaps from the Bureau of Engraving his is the only agency in Washington really making any money. Each year his men corral errant funds for the Federal Treasury many, many times the total cost of operating the Bureau.

With the Nation at war, the activities of this agency in the apprehension and conviction of saboteurs and other enemies within our borders, have filled us all with admiration and thanksgiving. To our countrymen his name has become synonymous with the finest expression of law enforcement. To our youth who enjoy his patronage of all manner of worthwhile activities, he is a perennial hero and an incomparable preceptor. Through them he is engaged in an outstanding work of character building for this Nation.

Strength and skill alone will never pull this world from its present mess. Our adversaries have plenty of that. What they lack and can never gain in this war is character. Character: that basic stamina, not of the flesh, and which obtains only among free peoples, character of the dependable type that marked our redoubtable Dutch ancestors. The basis of all just government is character. We cannot win this war unless our master sights be lifted to the level of peace aims so predicated. Only as we mobilize galvanic character, along with physical strength and skill, shall we prevail in the war and shall justice prevail in the peace to follow. Therefore, to those of our leaders who by precept and example are placing character to the fore in this crucial epoch of the Nation, we are profoundly grateful. It is with such gratitude that we proudly salute our celebrated compatriot this evening.

By direction of our Trustees, Mr. President, I respectfully present to you for investiture with the Gold Medal of this Society the modest subject of these inadequate, but well-intended remarks, Mr. John Edgar Hoover.

J. Edgar Hoover Receives Order Of Police Merit

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30. (AP)—J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, received from the Cuban Government today "the Order of Police Merit", highest law enforcement honor of the Island Republic.

The medal was presented on behalf of President Fulgencio Batista and General Manuel Benitez, Chief of the Cuban National Police, by Ambassador Aurelio Conchoso at the Office of Director Hoover who accepted with "profound pleasure."

The Ambassador said the medal was awarded in recognition of Hoover's cooperation in the prosecution of enemy activities.

"I look with pride upon the spirit of friendship and cooperation that exists between the Cuban National Police and the Federal Bureau of Investigation," Hoover told the Ambassador and other high ranking Cubans.

"Already the common understanding and the joint effort of our two organizations have forged a shield of protection against the Axis forces that would undisturbed disturb the peace of the Americas. Under that great shield, General Manuel Benitez the Cuban National Police has become one of the world's truly great protective bodies."

Pursuant to an order issued by His Excellency, The President of Cuba, Major General Fulgencio Batista, Dr. Aurelio F. Gonsalves, Ambassador of Cuba, conferred upon Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation, the "Order of Police Merit, With Distinction White of the First Class."

The medal conferred upon Mr. Hoover is the highest law enforcement honor that can be bestowed by the Government of Cuba.

The citation accompanying the medal is as follows:

"Section A: Executive Power

NATIONAL DEFENSE

Decree No. 3322

Considering:

That Mr. John Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation of Washington, has exceptional merits because of the valuable services given to the National Cuban Police, cooperating with same efficiently, in matters regarding the prosecution of elements, enemies of democracy, dedicated to espionage, as it has been demonstrated in the recent case of the Nazi spy, Heinz A. Luning, whose activities were discovered and whose apprehension was made by members of the National Police, with the cooperation of Agents from the above-mentioned Bureau.

Considering:

That by Presidential Decree No. 1283 of May 7, 1936, modified by No. 241 of January 11, 1940, there was created the

ENCLOSURE

Condecoracion Decoracion "ORDER OF POLICE MERIT," determining the different kinds and distinctions.

Therefore:

In the use of the faculties of which I am vested, assisted by the Council of Ministers and at the proposition of the Minister of National Defense and of the Chief of the National Police, I make the following

RESOLUTION

First:

To grant the Condecoracion Decoracion "Order of Police Merit," with Distinctive White of the First Class, as per it is referred to in the 1 part.

(c) Art. 1st of the Presidential Decree No. 241 of January 11, 1940, to Mr. John Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at Washington, in consideration of all his merits.

Second:

The Minister of National Defense and the Chief of the National Police have the mission to accomplish what have been disposed by the present decree.

Given in the Presidential Palace in Havana on November 9, 1942.

F. Batista, President

Ramon Caydin, First Minister

Aristides Sosa, Minister of
National Defense

In presenting the award which was brought to Washington by Captain Oscar Gutierrez of the Cuban National Police, Ambassador Conchoso said:

"My distinguished friend, Mr. Hoover. It is a very great honor for me to have the privilege of delivering to you this decoration of the Order of Police Merit, with distinctive white of the First Class, which has been bestowed upon you by the Chief of the National Police of Cuba in recognition of your able cooperation in the prosecution of espionage and other enemy activities.

The outstanding work which you have accomplished with the National Police of Cuba has motivated the Government of Cuba and the Chief of Police of Cuba, General Benites, to confer upon you this decoration, and from today your name will occupy a prominent place among those who have distinguished themselves in the prosecution of crime and its agents."

Mr. Hoover, in accepting the award, said:

"It is with profound pleasure that I accept the honor conferred upon me, Mr. Ambassador, by His Excellency, The President of Cuba, Major General Fulgenio Batista, on behalf of my associates of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

I look with pride upon the spirit of friendship and cooperation that exists between the Cuban National Police and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Already the common understanding and the joint efforts of our two organizations have forged a chain of protection against the Axis forces that would raid and disturb the peace of the Americas. That has been accomplished in the past is only a forerunner of what we can expect in the future in maintaining the security of our two countries.

Under that great leader, General Manuel Benitez, the Cuban National Police has become one of the world's truly great protective bodies. The Americas can be assured that their solidarity and peace will be protected insofar as Cuba is concerned. The people of Cuba in turn can be assured that their neighbors in the United States will do their part in winning the right of free people everywhere to security from the aggression of our Axis foes.

On behalf of every member of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, I wish, Mr. Ambassador, and Captain Gutierrez, that you would express to President Batista, General Benitez, and his associates our heartfelt appreciation for the honor that has been conferred upon us."

The Delegation representing President Batista and General Benitez were as follows:

1. Dr. Aurelio F. Conchese, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Cuba to the United States
2. Captain Oscar Gutierrez
3. Dr. Jose T. Soren, Minister Counselor of Embassy

4. Dr. Vicente Valdes Rodriguez, Counselor of Embassy
5. Dr. Joaquin Meyer, First Secretary of Embassy
6. Lieutenant Colonel Felipe Mantilla, Military and Air Attache

J. Edgar Hoover Is Rated as America's No. 1 Expert on Subversive Activities

By OLIVER McKEE.

Twenty-five years ago today, a 22-year-old graduate of George Washington University Law School entered the Justice Department as a clerk.

Nicknamed "Speed" by his schoolmates, because of tireless energy, the young man, during this quarter century, has become one of the best-known Americans of his generation.

He is John Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation since 1924, and a principal aid of Attorney General Biddle and Judge Advocate General Cramer in preparing the Government's case against the eight Nazi agents in the trial conducted by the President's military commission.

His colleagues say that Mr. Hoover knows more about subversive activities in the United States than any man in the country. Since the outbreak of the war in Europe, Mr. Hoover has devoted much of his time to problems of internal security, and has held regular conferences with representatives of the Army and Navy intelligence services. Through these conferences information about foreign espionage has been exchanged, and plans formulated for a cooperative campaign to uncover espionage, and ferret out foreign agents.

As soon as word reached FBI headquarters that Nazi agents had landed on the United States coast, Mr. Hoover took the field to direct in person the investigation that resulted in the apprehension of the eight men who have been on trial here for their lives, and their 14 accomplices, recently arrested.

Since the hunt centered largely around New York, Mr. Hoover spent much time in that city. The full details of his itinerary have yet to be revealed. Clues were reported from as far away as the Pacific Coast.

Officials are unable to reveal exactly how many FBI agents took part in the search for the Nazi saboteurs. Because of the wide geographical range of the leads uncovered, they point out, a large proportion of the field personnel had some hand in the investigation. Identification and apprehension of the Nazis landed from German submarines, and their accomplices, though achieved in a few weeks, proved one of the toughest jobs ever faced by Hoover and his men.

When Mr. Hoover entered the Justice Department, his ambition was to become a Government attorney, and possibly to open a law office of his own later. His first assignment was to the newly formed War Division. This was a few months after the entrance of the United States into the First World War. The new unit co-operated with the Army and Navy intelligence services in preparing evidence for deportation of suspected and declared anarchists.

Mr. Hoover soon won recognition as the department's best informed man on deportation cases. His work attracted the attention of Attorney General T. W. Gregory, and he was promoted to special assistant to the Attorney General.

The Bureau of Investigation, at that time, was a little known Federal agency. Mr. Hoover became interested in its operations and, in August, 1919, Mr. Gregory asked him to set up in the bureau a general intelligence division.

Prom then on, investigative work became Mr. Hoover's chief interest. In 1921 he was made assistant director of the bureau, and three years later Attorney General Herlihy Stone (now the Chief Justice of the United States) appointed him director. He accepted on condition that there would be no politics in the bureau.

In the years immediately following, Mr. Hoover and his G-men were often in the national spotlight in the war against crime. He himself led his men in several raids against notorious gangsters.

Under his leadership, the FBI not only engaged in a successful war against crime, but law enforcement was placed on a professionalized, scientific basis. Oldtimers laughed when Mr. Hoover decided to recruit his new agents from the ranks of college graduates and those with similar educational training. The policy proved a wise one, however, for the FBI today, because so many of its agents are lawyers, knows how to gather the evidence that will obtain convictions. Of the cases presented to the courts by the FBI last year, more than 97 per cent resulted in convictions.

Two decades ago the FBI had approximately 800 agents on the rolls. Today it has more than 2,000, and a personnel, in Washington and the field, of more than 10,000.

The approach of Mr. Hoover's 25th anniversary brought him many congratulatory messages. Among these was a letter of congratulation from President Roosevelt, read yesterday at the graduation exercises of the 19th class of the FBI National Police Academy.

"You have built up from nothing an extraordinarily able and efficient service for detecting and punishing crime throughout the United States," Attorney General Biddle told Mr. Hoover in a letter made public yesterday.

"To the good will of a grateful public, I should like to add your personal word of good wishes for your continued success."

Taber Blocks Medal Award To FBI Chief

Efforts to award a medal of honor to J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, were blocked in the House yesterday by Representative Taber (Republican) of New York.

Taber asserted that he was a personal friend of Hoover and admired his abilities, but said that he was opposed as a matter of principle to the granting of medals to civilian Federal officers.

His objection prevented present consideration of the bill, asked under a unanimous consent order, and will force it to await its turn on the legislative calendar.

Previously Representative Crawford (Republican) of Michigan had urged passage of the measure pointing out that Sunday marked Hoover's twenty-fifth anniversary in the Federal service.

"A distinguished citizen, an idol of young America, a fearless officer, a faithful worker for his Government full worthy of his hire, Director Hoover's 25-year record as a Federal employee stands as an inspiration to other Government workers," Crawford asserted. "His record of accomplishment and devotion to duty proves there is a career in the Government."

A similar bill has been approved by the Senate Judiciary Committee but has not yet been acted upon in the upper chamber.

Oliver McKee of the Evening Star called to advise they have an Associated Press dispatch from Miami stating that Captain Sanchez of the Cuban National Police had been in Miami and was enroute to Washington to confer upon Mr. Hoover the medal of the Cuban Government; that he also has a message from the President of Cuba thanking the FBI for its cooperation in the Lunning case.

Mr. McKee wanted to know if there were any comment we could make as to when the medal would be conferred, whether it would be possible to have photographers present, etc. I told him it was not possible for us to say when the medal would be conferred, or to furnish any details. I told McKee that as he recalled, the fact that a medal was to be conferred has already appeared in the papers. He wondered whether we would keep him advised as to the situation.

I frankly anticipate considerable press inquiry during the day in view of General Benitez' recent visit and the frequent press contact we had as a result of this visit. If there is anything further to say, I would appreciate advice.

Respectfully,

L. B. Nichols.

My dear Mr. President:

I wish to acknowledge your gracious letter dated July 20th, which was read to the graduating members of the 1st National Police Academy at their graduation exercises this morning. The fact that you would take time out of your busy day to send a message to the graduates of the National Police Academy impressed upon them the seriousness of their assignments and without exception they all expressed to me their appreciation and loyalty to you as their Commander in Chief in these turbulent periods.

I cannot let this opportunity pass without telling you how deeply I appreciated your kindly references to my twenty-five years of service in the Department of Justice. This period of time seems all too short. It has been punctuated, however, with periods of extreme difficulty. However, I would be remiss in my duties if I did not tell you that the last several years under your administration have been some of the happiest years of my life, as well as the most difficult because of the many complex problems with which we have had to cope. The fact that you have supported the FBI has given every man and woman in this service the inspiration to carry on at times in the face of almost overwhelming odds. You may rest assured that you may continue to count upon all of us in the FBI to give everything we possess in energy and in spirit to the successful culmination of the great task with which we are now faced.

My Dear Senator:

I cannot refrain from telling you how deeply touched I was by the thought which prompted you to introduce your resolution in the Senate yesterday authorizing the President to award a medal to me in the name of the Congress.

This manifestation of confidence comes to few men in public life, and regardless of the outcome of the Senatorial action on the resolution, the mere fact that you thought sufficiently well of the work of the FBI to call it to the attention of the Senate and single it out to receive an award, is compensation for the sleepless hours we have all put in handling not only the case involving the eight German sabotage agents, but preparing for the past few years for just what happened on Sunday afternoon, December 7th.

Of course, any award which I might receive would be received by me with the distinct understanding that it was being given to the men and women of the Federal Bureau of Investigation through me as their spokesman, because this is one organization that is intrinsically a "we" organization, and its success and past achievements have resulted primarily from the concerted efforts and united spirit of all of our associates in the FBI, with our energies directed toward the single goal - the making of a more secure America.

FDR Praises Hoover For Direction of FBI

PM's Bureau

WASHINGTON, July 25—FDR yesterday praised J. Edgar Hoover for his fine work and splendid leadership both in peacetime and wartime as director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

J. Edgar Hoover

A personal greeting from the President marked Hoover's 25th anniversary with the Justice Dept. It was made public in connection with graduation exercises of the FBI's national policy academy.

"While our military, naval and air forces are engaging the enemy wherever they may be found," the President wrote, "the FBI and its co-operating agencies are finding the enemies within our gates who seek to destroy our liberty and our freedom. This work is vitally essential to our war effort in order to insure our victory."

He Ought to Have a Medal

IN KENTUCKY we know that there is a great deal of sentiment in favor of giving special national recognition to J. Edgar Hoover, as head of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, for his great work in rounding up saboteurs and others unfriendly to the cause of this country and the United Nations.

We believe that this same sentiment prevails throughout the country for Mr. Hoover and his men have done an outstanding job in apprehending these men before they have been able to inflict damage upon our war effort. The recent arrest of eight men landed from Nazi submarines was a splendid piece of work. And the nation wants speedy justice meted out to these plotters of disaster for our people.

How would it be if Mr. Hoover were to receive national honor in the form of a medal just as our heroes of the armed forces are being decorated for bravery?

A MEDAL FOR J. EDGAR HOOVER

—AN EDITORIAL—

NOW pending before the U. S. Congress is a bill introduced by Senator Hiram Wood to authorize the presentation of a medal of honor to J. Edgar Hoover, the Chief of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, better known as the FBI. We hope this bill is passed, because Mr. Hoover is well deserving of recognition for the laudable work the FBI has done under his capable direction.

It is true that when the U. S. Government was first organized, back in 1776 or thereabouts, there was no need for an FBI. There was little need for extra policing outside of the sheriff in the rural sections and the regular police in the small towns and cities of those early days. It was only in 1908 that the need for some sort of a Federal Police became apparent. It was then that the FBI was organized by Attorney General Bonaparte. Not much was heard of any outstanding accomplishments by the FBI for the 10 years that followed. In 1924 J. Edgar Hoover was placed in charge and he re-organized the FBI and made it what it is today, an effective nationwide organization, which has distinguished itself in many ways. In war as in peace, the FBI is doing a magnificent job and all credit should go to Mr. J. Edgar Hoover who made that department a most indispensable arm of our government.

In checking crime and criminals, the exploits of the FBI would fill a good many volumes. But why go into that? We all remember the Dillinger gang and how it was wiped out, thanks to Mr. J. Edgar Hoover's FBI. With the country at war, the organizational work done by Mr. Hoover and the FBI becomes all the more important. The recent capture of the 8 German Nazi saboteurs, before they had an opportunity to do any of their dirty work, certainly deserves recognition, to say nothing of the laudable and quick work the FBI did in rounding up the Bundists who were either in league with the Nazi saboteurs or potential saboteurs themselves.

Just suppose for a minute that there had been no FBI and no J. Edgar Hoover and those Nazi Germans, with their explosives

Five hundred fake credentials and thousands of dollars of money to use for bribery, had spread out and started their work. Think of how much property and lives might have been sacrificed. Not only has this been averted, but the speedy arrest of these scoundrels and their accomplices will serve as a warning to any and all enemies within and without, that the eyes of the FBI are upon them.

The saving of life and property as a result of the watchfulness and thorough organization of the FBI will do much to hasten the day of victory. What is comforting to all of us in America is that this efficient intelligently directed organization, working day and night in the interest of America, does its job within the law and humanely too. How different is our intelligently led, legally operating FBI from the Gestapo and similar police organizations in the brutal totalitarian countries. Thanks to Mr. Hoover, innocent men, even if they are aliens or classed as enemy aliens, can rest easy in the knowledge that the FBI knows the facts, and whereas this may be terrifying to our real enemies and all scoundrels, it is gratifying to every decent, honest law abiding individual citizen and non citizen in America.

Attorney General Biddle commenting on this question, in a letter to Senator Van Nuys, says:

"I have a letter from the Clerk of the Committee on the Judiciary enclosing a copy of S. 2843, introduced by Senator Mead to authorize the presentation of a medal of honor to J. Edgar Hoover, and requesting my advice.

The bill authorizes the President to present, in the name of the Congress, a medal of honor to Mr. Hoover in recognition of his work in connection with the apprehension of the saboteurs, and other duties relating to the war effort. This tribute to Mr. Hoover's unusual work, as expressed in the bill, is particularly gratifying to me and I am sure to Mr. Hoover's associates in the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Department of Justice."

Yes, by all means, Mr. Hoover should be suitably decorated, so that he and his excellent organization may know that the American people appreciate their good work.

HONORS FOR THE CHIEF GANG BUSTER

Why not a medal for J. Edgar Hoover?

New York senator has proposed a congressional award for the head G-man as the result of the capture of the eight alleged Nazi saboteurs. It will seem to a great many Americans that this forthright citizen should have been awarded a medal long ago for his suppression of crime in this country.

J. Edgar Hoover is the type of man to whom Americans like to pay tribute. He has gone about his business without ostentation and certainly without fear. He is the last man in the land who would have thought of congressional honor for his work. He always has taken the position stated so ably by Cato, when he said, "I would rather that people ask why there is no statue for me, than why there is one."

THE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE of the Senate yesterday approved unanimously legislation authorizing President Roosevelt to award J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, an appropriate medal for his roundup of Nazi saboteurs.

Every American admires the FBI for the excellent work done in running down spies and fifth communists before they have had time to injure the country. It shouldn't be necessary to pass a law in order to give Hoover proper recognition.

Of course, much of the credit should be given the fact finder Hoover, who actually did the work. The American people feel it is accurate in the knowledge that the best detectives have brains in the world are of their own.

John Edgar Hoover Deserves Medal

The trial of the eight enemy agents who landed in the United States from a submarine premises after some middle course between the sharks of communism which have appeared just under the surface of public opinion. Appointment of a Military Commission for the trial indicates that there will be no "softness" in dealing with this case. On the other hand, the careful preparations for the trial exhibit a regard for human rights under law which is a testimony of democratic civilization.

John Edgar Hoover, Director, FBI

Neither those who shrink from imposing drastic penalties on individuals who have identified themselves with evil forces, nor those who would like to see Americans resemble Nazi criminals with human life still be placed with the plans for this trial. These plans point to the possibility of a death sentence for the guilty; they provide means to such loopholes as might have been found through a civil trial; but they make no provision for satisfaction of blood lust.

Fair but stern measures, and a minimum loss of time in disposing of such cases, are called for by the trials of emergency that face the United States. The conviction of MIY Guyton of giving voice—and comfort to the enemy by sheltering and entertaining a fugitive, and prisoner in Detroit, and the authoritative reports—more fantastic than fiction—of a spy plot spreading in the Caribbean, are warning Americans up to the dangers of enemy intrigue in their midst.

The Chronicle has always been a staunch admirer of The F. B. I. and Director John Edgar Hoover, and we believe that while medals are being awarded for meritorious service during the war, one should be struck for John Edgar Hoover, and another for the entire Bureau.

Whether the majority of Americans fully realize the wonderful work of the Federal Bureau of Investigation during the past six years is doubtful. All will remember the days of John Dillinger, "Baby-face" Nelson, Tommy Carroll and other lawbreakers who were "shot" as Public Enemy No. 1, hanging in the limelight just long enough for a bullet to erase his name, and another headline "shooter" to fill an early grave.

The recent arrests of Gurnea, Haines and Sage should convince the most skeptical that working in the German Espionage School does not cope with the science and skill of the F. B. I.

THE BRACKEN CHRONICLE
August, Ky.
July 16, 1942

Director Hoover and his efficient force have outwitted the Axis henchmen in every instance, and if there are any misguided Americans, who still feel that the United States isn't worth fighting for, or that there isn't $10 worth of difference in which side wins this great war, they had better put a suit-pedal to that type of talk, or they will get the same dose as the rest of the traitors.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation is one organization that is absolutely outside the grasp of the politicians, and we believe that is one reason, in the past, why appropriations have always been begrudgingly and given begrudgingly to this wonderful organization.

Their excellent work during the past several years, and during this war has convinced the American people that Director John Edgar Hoover and his men are heads and shoulders above any other organization of this kind, including the world-famous Scotland Yard.

WAR DEPARTMENT
WAR DEPARTMENT GENERAL STAFF
MILITARY INTELLIGENCE DIVISION 6-2
WASHINGTON

July 23, 1942.

J. Edgar Hoover, Esq.,
Director, FBI, U.S. Department of Justice,
Washington, D.C.

My dear Mr. Hoover:

Last evening when I spoke to you and Mr. Tolson in Harvey's I would have come over to shake hands and offer congratulations to you both for the great things recently made public, ~~and~~ also for the Congressional Medal of Honor which you will receive, but I didn't want to bother you.

I don't know many people with the Medal of Honor today, but it is certainly something which should have gone to you and your key men long ago and this is exactly what I have often told the White House as well as leading Congressional figures for some years.

It is especially gratifying in these dark days to realize that we have here in our country an organization not in any way under the control or whim of a political party or persons with an axe to grind. It is the one highly scientific body of top-flight protectors of the country who can not be shifted from a position in which they are doing most good to one where their talents are suddenly rendered useless, as is too often the case in other branches of the Government.

Further it is also appreciated by thinking citizens whose taxes help defray running expenses of the land, that your organization does more for us per dollar expended than any other, and in fact saves and protects the dollars we have. But most of all it saves lives and many more than most people realize, far greater number in proportion to the force than our uniformed "Armed Forces" put together. I shall never forget how in the peace-years when I had any information I considered valuable to the Government (for its protection etc) and when the well known Armed Forces refused to accept or use the data, it was your FBI that accepted it gladly and without fanfare, and used it when it was any good to them at all. THAT, is the example of comfort a citizen-soldier gets from knowing your outfit is there, and everywhere ready and able to quickly use the tools it can get its hands on to oppose our enemies and prospective-future-enemies. I only hope your hands become more and more un-tied so that your talents can be free to accomplish even more. Likewise I hope my branch of the service can become more and more skilled in its work so to help you too.

So, again - congratulations! May there soon be many palms attached to that decoration. Kindest regards to you both as always, I

Sincerely yours,

Van R.H. Sternbergh

OBSERVER-ATIONS.

HOOPER The move on the MERITS part of the Senate to give J. Edgar AWARD Hoover, head of the F. B. I., a medal for the shrewd work which his aleuthia did in taking the eight German pies who slipped in via rubber boats with plenty of apparatus to do a world of devilsment, is timely and belated.

Mr. Hoover's magnificent service, even in times of peace, in tracking down the Capone-types of racketeers and streamlined evil-doers of all degrees have won for him and for his alert forces the admiration and esteem of his fellow countrymen.

It's appropriate that the Government should officially take note of his mastery in his field and his superb stiplencies in the present crisis in combating saboteurs.

And especially fitting that Congress, which has all too often raised raucous and fault finding voices against him, should make amends for its pettiness in this regard.

My Dear Director:

I thoroughly enjoyed the talk that I had with you in your office on July 1, and appreciated the many nice things that you said about the cooperation that the Texas Department of Public Safety had been giving to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

I assure you that one of the greatest pleasures that I derive in being Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, is the close association that I have been privileged to have with your special agents who are stationed in the State of Texas. Special Agents Ascare, Abbaticchio, Kitchin, and Bryce, are not only efficient, courteous law enforcement officers, but outstanding gentlemen and citizens of the State of Texas. I know that the best of the peace officers in this State will join with me in expressing to you our sincere appreciation for stationing these gentlemen with us, because they have exhibited a spirit of fairness and friendly cooperation that is certainly outstanding.

I observed in the Press that a member of Congress has introduced a bill to present to you the Congressional Medal of Honor for apprehending the eight saboteurs who recently landed in this Country. Certainly you are entitled to this honor and it is gratifying to know that someone has recognized the fact that you as a peace officer of our Country should be cited for this most outstanding achievement.

Please be assured that the Department of Public Safety will continue to cooperate with you wholeheartedly in all matters, and I hope that if there is ever anything that I can do for you, either personally or officially, that you will call upon me.

With kindest regards and best wishes, I am, Sir,

Sincerely your friend

John Edgar Hoover Deserves Medal

The trial of the eight enemy agents who landed in the United States from a submarine promises to steer sane middle course between two shoals of emotionalism which

United States. The conviction of Max Stephan of giving aid and comfort to the enemy by sheltering and entertaining a fugitive Nazi prisoner in Detroit, and the authoritative reports—more fantastic than fiction—of a spy plot operating in the Caribbean, are waking Americans up to the dangers of enemy intrigue in their midst.

The Chronicle has always been a staunch admirer of The F. B. I. and Director John Edgar Hoover, and we believe that while medals are being awarded for meritorious service during the war, one should be struck for John Edgar Hoover, and another for the entire Bureau.

Whether the majority of Americans fully realize the wonderful work of the Federal Bureau of Investigation during the past six years is doubtful. All will remember the days of John Dillinger, "Baby-face" Nelson, Tommy Carroll and other lawbreakers who were "slotted" as Public Enemy No. 1, banking in the limelight just long enough for a bullet to erase his name, and another hoodlum "slotted" to fill an early grave.

The recent arrests of Gorgana, Itallana and Jago should convince the most skeptical that training in the German Espionage School cannot cope with the science and skill of the F. B. I.

Director Hoover and his efficient force have outwitted the Axis brats in every instance, and if there are any misguided Americans, who still feel that the United States isn't worth fighting for, or that there isn't $10 worth of difference in which side wins this great war, they had better put a self-pistol to that type of folk, or they will get the same dose as the rest of the traitors.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation is one organization that is absolutely outside the grasp of the politicians, and we believe that is one reason, in the past, why appropriations have always been meagerly and given begrudgingly to this wonderful organization.

Their excellent work during the past several years, and during the war has convinced the American people that Director John Edgar Hoover and his men are heads and shoulders above any other organization of this kind, including the world-famous Scotland Yard.

have appeared just under the surface of public opinion. Appointment of a Military Commission for the trial indicates that there will be no "softness" in dealing with this case. On the other hand, the care for preparations for the trial exhibit a regard for human rights under law which is a touchstone of democratic civilization.

Neither those who shrink from imposing drastic penalties on individuals who have identified themselves with evil forces, nor those who would like to see Americans emulate Nazi cannibalism with human life will be pleased with the plans for this trial. These plans point to the possibility of a death-sentence for the guilty; they preclude resort to such loopholes as might have been found through a civil trial; but they make no provision for satisfaction of blood lust. Fair but stern measures, and a minimum loss of time in disposing of such cases, are called for by the type of emergency that faces the

Dear John Hoover:

That was a great talk you made over the radio last night during The March of Time program ... and I note in the morning paper that you are about to be honored with a Congressional Medal for your brilliant work.

It seems to me, however, that the greatest medal you will ever receive will be the deep thanks of the American people who, at long last, have come to realize what John Hoover has been doing for the past few years and what your great bureau means to the people of America.

My cordial regards as always,
